

Exchange and proximate business restructuring

An exchange that either precedes, follows, or straddles a business restructuring. A business restructuring is a formation of, dissolution of, distribution from, contribution to, merger of, division of a business entity or other similar transaction.